

Ethnic minorities in Britain: At last the truth leaks out

SEVEN MILLION

FOR MANY YEARS, successive governments in Britain have tried to dampen down public fears about immigration by maintaining that the numbers of people belonging to the ethnic minorities in this country amounted to no more than 2½ million — less than 5 per cent of the population.

The comical thing about this 2½ million figure is that it has been held up as gospel for well over 20 years, during which fresh numbers of immigrants from the Third World have been pouring in every year and masses of children have been born to mothers belonging to ethnic minority groups — whose birthrate is far above the level of indigenous white Britons. Those 'in the know' have been well aware for a long time that the true figure for coloured immigrants and their descendants is far higher than those officially admitted. Nevertheless, politicians, Whitehall bureaucrats and the media have continued to persist in giving out the old figure, which almost certainly was out of date as long ago as 1965, if not before.

'BLACK PAGES'

Recently, however, the cat was let out of the bag by a report which appeared in the Daily Star (20.2.93) dealing with the publication of a telephone directory to be called Black Pages and printed especially for the members of ethnic minority groups in this country. The report read:-

"A telephone directory listing the numbers of Britain's 7 million-strong ethnic minority community was launched by the Government yesterday...."

An interesting question concerning this report is whether the figure of 7 million refers to the whole ethnic minority population or merely that part of it living in homes where there is a telephone!

When we first saw this report we felt that we should seek some confirmation of the 7 million figure before we commented upon it. We telephoned the Home Office, a department of which was reported as supporting the scheme, and we were advised to phone the office of Black Pages for information. This we did.

EVASIVE

A gentleman with a West Indian accent eventually spoke to us. At first he was very evasive, seeking to know just who we were before discussing the matter, saying that he was concerned that 'racists' might exploit population figures for their own purposes. Eventually, however, we extracted from him an admission that the published figure of 7 million was somewhere near correct. The previously acknowledged figure of 2½ million, he said, represented only about a third of the true total, since two out of every three 'ethnic' families declined to fill in population census forms "for fear that they might one day suffer the fate of the Jews in Germany under Hitler."

We are grateful to this spokesman for his honesty — and, it must be acknowledged, for the civility in which he spoke to us. His frankness stands in sharp contrast to the deceitfulness of Government representatives over the years whenever they have been questioned on the subject.

THIRD WORLDERS

It now becomes clear that A VERY MINIMUM of 7 million Third Worlders now reside in this country — that is the alarming truth that has been concealed from us all these years by the evasions, tergiversations and downright lies of officialdom. This brings the true proportion of ethnic minority members up to somewhere near that of Blacks in the United States — with all that that signifies! The facts had to come out sometime, and they have come out now. Every responsible and public-spirited ASIAN extremists (above) leave no doubt as to their message: "This is OUR country now, and you had better get used to the idea of being second class citizens." Are we to suffer the same fate of the Palestinians, and be expelled from our own country by alien newcomers?

native British citizen should and over the blatant dishonesty of from us for so long. It is time we ponder deeply over this figure — our rulers in trying to conceal it were told the truth!

"SMASH THE I.R.A.!"

SUNDAY, April 25th, was the day when the British National Party (pictured on right) marched through the streets of London to say: "Smash the IRA!" About 300 were on the march, but up to possibly 200 more would have joined in had they been able to get to the assembly point. The police, obviously acting on instructions from the Government, forced the BNP to make a last-minute alteration to the assembly point that had been widely advertised, and then did not permit party stewards to proceed to the original point to redirect those arriving there.

A filthy-looking red mob turned out with the intention of stopping the march, but they failed miserably.

The event won massive publicity in the London area on both TV and radio, and once again it was demonstrated that the BNP is the only party that has the guts to oppose the terrorists on the streets.

PEACE AT ANY PRICE?

Nobody should be under any illusion as to what is at stake over the savage murder of Little Jonathan Ball and young Tim Parry by the IRA killers in Warrington, or indeed the recent bomb attacks and murders in London.

Mr Major may have thought it necessary, just like his predecessor Margaret Thatcher after previous atrocities like the Enniskillen Remembrance Day bombing of 1989, to spout strong words for public consumption about how the 'men of violence would never be allowed to win.' But as is always the way with Britain's politicians in cases like this, the prime Minister's actions gave the lie to his words.

Enniskillen never stopped Margaret Thatcher from talking to the leaders of the Irish Republic, which has never stopped 'safe-housing' the terrorists within its borders despite the occasional token arrest of the odd IRA godfather on its territory. Warrington didn't stop Major from trying to fix yet another appointment for yet more talks on Ulster's future with representatives of the Dublin regime. This was in fact his first practical reaction to this latest slaughter of the innocents by Britain's Republican enemies.

Meanwhile, our media, which just now are very taken up with campaigning for war-like action to avenge the faraway ills of Bosnian Moslems, have been doing their utmost to smother the righteous anger of the British people over the no less savage killings of our own children right here at home.

Big 'peace' demos were staged both in London and Dublin barely before the dust of the Warrington blast had settled. This 'peace' movement was instantly boosted on TV and in the press.

Mr Gordon Wilson, whose daughter was brutally slaughtered at Enniskillen, was given a blaze of publicity when he went for a personal pow-wow with some of the IRA's leading woodlums in Dublin.

The IRA, he found, was not at all interested in peace. Mr Wilson got nothing out of his dealings with them. But they got a propaganda bonanza courtesy of the media.

The 'peace' movement, so favoured by our media is shaping up to become a 'peace at any price' movement.

No wonder so many republican supporters on both sides of the Irish Sea have been so keen to take part in it — as they did in the London and Dublin Demos.

The Godfathers of the IRA must be laughing up their sleeves. All the talk of 'peace' as some sort of end in itself is something they can steer in exactly the direction they want it to go — that is, straight towards a united marxist Republic of Ireland.

What is never spelt out is that there are at least two types of peace. There is the peace of victory over the kind of evil represented by the likes of the IRA. Then there is the peace of lazy, cowardly surrender to it — the peace of defeat.

It is the latter that our nation's politicians and media men are busily pushing for.

If the IRA ever succeed, all our nation's enemies, at home and abroad, would conclude that we British had become a pushover. In those conditions we could expect a whole lot more trouble.

WHITE TEACHER RAPED IN BLACK GHETTO 'HELL-SCHOOL'

Was there a racial motive?

THE HORRIFYING alleged rape of a teacher in a south London comprehensive school was widely reported in the press last month.

The reports told of a teacher being raped by a 13-year-old pupil while another boy of 14 held her down. The 14-year-old was about to rape the woman himself but was disturbed by another teacher.

But not a single Establishment paper reported the fact that there was a racial dimension to the incident.

The clue to what really happened was buried in the small print of only one newspaper (the Sun), which described the alleged victim as a 'white woman, who teaches French.'

Now, just why did they mention the fact that the victim was white?

The only logical explanation of course is that the alleged rapists were not white.

But such an admission is of course banned by the Press Council, 'in the interests of promoting good race relations.'

The white woman, who teaches French, was attacked last Friday at a comprehensive school in Southwark, South London, where she had worked for several months.

THE VITAL paragraph in the Sun (above) gives the clue as to what really happened in the rape case. But it is only by careful scrutiny of the small print, or local knowledge of an area, that the whole truth can be ascertained.

The general public reading the reports of the school rape will be totally unaware of the racial dimension — thanks to the self-censorship of the Establishment press

Evil Labour man raped girl of 10

LABOUR likes to portray the BNP as 'criminals' — but the real criminals are within their own ranks.

Labour Party official John Johnson, 46, was last month convicted of raping a ten-year-old girl during sex-attacks spanning nearly two decades.

Johnson, of Billingham, Cleveland, was also a magistrate, making his behaviour even more disgraceful.

This kind of case is of course by no means unusual. Members of all the Establishment parties are frequently exposed as perverts and crooks — which makes all the more disgusting and disgraceful their claim to occupy the 'moral high ground'.

Why was this rapist freed?

EVIL RAPIST Martin McCall has been freed — thanks to the weakness of Britain's sick legal system.

McCall was one of three sub-humans who broke into an St Mary's vicarage, Ealing, and raped the virgin daughter of the vicar.

RAPIST Martin McCall

The circumstances of the rape and robbery were so revoltingly brutal that the case shocked the entire nation.

Yet incredibly, the liberal judge Mr Justice Leonard gave McCall only a five year sentence for the vicious rape.

Accomplice Christopher Byrne, 28, who also raped the girl, was given only three years, while Robert Horscroft, who took part in the robbery but not the rapes, was sent down for 14 years.

PATHETIC SENTENCES

The pathetic sentences caused outrage, not only from the victims of the ordeal, but from the general public, most of whom endorse the BNP's call for castration of sex-offenders and re-introduction of the death penalty for the most wicked cases.

Twenty-seven-year-old McCall was the ringleader of the attack on the

VICTIM Susan Cole

IMPOSTER Loveth Udoji

"NIGERIAN DRUG-GIRL STOLE MY IDENTITY"

A BRITISH woman underwent a horrifying ordeal when a Nigerian drug-trafficker stole her identity for over three years as a cover for smuggling cocaine into Britain.

African-born Loveth Udoji had been found guilty of smuggling £40,000 worth of drugs to her address in Birkhamsted Avenue, Wembley, and was jailed for 6 years.

DOCUMENTS

But the court was told how Udoji had bought a copy of the birth certificate of a British woman, Susan Cole, and used it to obtain her passport, national insurance number and medical documents to take over her identity.

The fraud was only exposed when customs officials telephoned the real Susan Cole's bewildered parents to tell them their daughter had been arrested for smuggling drugs.

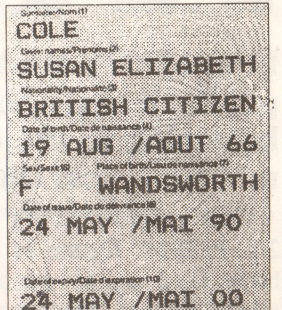

Susan's father said: 'I was stunned when they produced my daughter's birth certificate and explained the black woman claimed that we were her parents.'

Udoji's stolen identity not only enabled her to stay illegally in Britain but also to claim income support, housing benefit and even legal aid to defend the drug-smuggling charge.

The Nigerian imposter was even charged and convicted under her assumed name of 'Susan Cole', which means that the real Susan Cole will now have to take legal action to clear her name. The real Susan Cole is now unable to apply for a passport or open a bank account because the imposter had now given her a criminal record.

The case has highlighted how easy it is for illegal immigrants to get into Britain. Tory claims of 'controls' on immigration are being discredited time after time.

The BNP would solve the problem by expelling all non-whites, whether they have passports or not.

Hong-Kong Chinese now moving in BRITAIN's estate agents have discovered a profitable new money-making wheeze. They are moving into what has been dubbed the 'Chinese takeaway' business.

Here in Britain householders face hard times. Recession, unemployment and collapsing incomes have led to hundreds of thousands of British families being chucked out onto the streets after their homes have been repossessed because they could not keep up with mortgage repayments.

Now there is a growing glut of cut-price property sitting there for the taking by anyone with ready cash.

Nowadays though, our estate agent spivs, who will do anything for a fast buck, have cottoned on to the fact that true Brits in need of a roof over their heads no longer quite fit the bill.

Instead, they are advertising British homes to Hong Kong Chinese clients, who, according to the Daily Express, are 'happiest with repossessions up to £1 million.'

It seems the Chinese can afford the cream of the British housing market. One estate agency is marketing Chilterns country houses in the far East. Cluttons residential agency has just sold the entire Bovis Homes Sands Wharf scheme of 127 flats to a Hong Kong syndicate for £25 million.

So between now and 1997 when hundreds of thousands of Hong Kong immigrants pour into Britain, they won't exactly be slumming it.

PROPERTY SPIVS

This of course is not likely to give much comfort to British people who have lost their jobs and whose repossessed homes are being snapped up by the newcomers courtesy of the property spivs.

One of the latter, David Pretty of Barrat's, explained how he and his firm are bending over backwards for their far eastern clients: 'We get buyers by offering them a very detailed service, everything from organising finance and lettings to interior design and furnishings thrown in.'

SIGN of the times: Barrat's For Sale boards are now in Chinese vicarage. The three thugs savagely beat up the vicar, Michael Seward and then McCall and Byrne raped the vicar's daughter, Jill, at knifepoint. Brave Jill Seward later wrote a book about her ordeal to help victims of similar attacks.

McCall has since been released, and now lives back in Ealing, west London. He has put an 'I love Jesus' sticker in the back window of his car, in a sick reference to the vicarage attack.

THE NEW 'Brits' are already moving in to repossessed properties all over Britain.

Another agent involved in the cynical scam is Linda Beane, who spoke of the 20 per cent slump in UK property prices for dollar-earning overseas buyers like the Hong Kong Chinese.

Since the pound devaluation swindle, when Britain left the E.R.M., overseas clients, according to Miss Beane, have been like 'vultures.'

If only native Brits could take part in the new 'property boom'!

Britain's economic catastrophe

BRITAIN is facing its worst economic crisis since the 1930s — thanks to the incompetence of the Tory Government.

Not only is unemployment approaching its highest level in history, the Government has managed to create the biggest ever public spending deficit, plunging the balance of payments £400 billion into the red.

Hundreds of thousands of families have had their homes repossessed, after being encouraged to take out heavy than those of the former Soviet Union.

An opinion poll by the Daily Telegraph showed almost half of Britain's population would like to emigrate, and national pride has plummeted.

FOREIGN IMPORTS

And what is the Government's response to this crisis? Instead of halting immigration to reduce unemployment, immigration is actually increasing. Instead of banning the flood of inferior foreign imports, the Government is paying billions of pounds worth of 'development grants' to bribe Japanese companies to build their car plants in Britain, thus undermining the sales of genuinely British cars.

A recent example was the building of Toyota's £700 million plant in Derbyshire last year. This was trumpeted as a great victory by local Establishment politicians, who claimed that the factory would create jobs for British workers. This claim, however, is patently phoney when examined more closely. The 3,500 'coolie' type jobs created are a drop in the ocean compared with the tens of thousands of jobs which will be lost by firms such as Vauxhall, Austin Rover and Rolls Royce through the unfair competition.

Toyota intends to build 100,000 cars a year in Derbyshire, which will not be subject to import quotas as, according to the Government view, they are 'British built.'

If this kind of industrial mismanagement is not bad enough, the financial swindles which prop up the corrupt gangsters of Westminster are truly breathtaking.

DEVALUATION SWINDLE

Remember the E.R.M. fiasco and devaluation of the pound a few months ago? Britain lost billions of pounds overnight, while the shady foreign spivs who finance the Establishment parties (particularly the Tories) made a killing.

6,500 TROOPS JOIN DOLE QUEUE

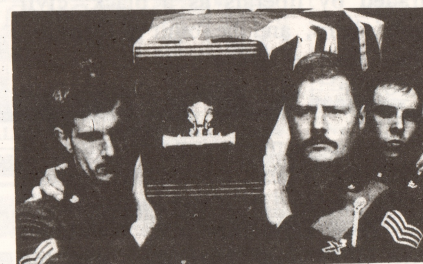

ALMOST 100 British soldiers risking their necks in Bosnia were handed their redundancy notices last month — the first of a planned 6,100 job cuts in the Army.

Soldiers serving in Bosnia, Ulster, and other danger spots, have been told that they are now in the firing line for redundancy, as part of the Government's so-called 'options for change' troop cuts.

The commanding officer of the British troops in Bosnia said: "They are shocked, and I feel very sorry for them."

This disgraceful action by the Government quashes any lingering notions that the Tories are the party of 'patriotism'. Not only will the troop cuts severely damage Britain's defence capability, the redundancies are a direct slap in the face to the brave men who have risked (and in many cases lost) their lives to defend their country.

BRITISH Army soldiers are willing to make the ultimate sacrifice for their country, by laying down their lives to defend their countrymen. Their reward from the Tory Government is to be join the dole queue.

SAS men to target our own troops

AS IF the troop cuts outlined above are not bad enough, the news from Ulster is that the Tory Government has ordered the SAS to 'take out' former British soldiers suspected of Loyalist sympathies.

Apparently, the Tories now regard militant Loyalists as a bigger threat than the IRA, as the Loyalists are resisting the Government's planned handover of Ulster to the Irish Republic. It is claimed that former British soldiers are using their expertise to assist Loyalist groups in their defence of Ulster against IRA murderers.

It is an indictment of the Tories' perverted mentality that they are perfectly happy order the summary execution of our own former soldiers, and yet refuse to allow the security forces the same freedom to act against known IRA terrorists.

Los Angeles show-trial: Two cops found 'guilty'

RODNEY KING EXPOSED AS CRIMINAL LIAR

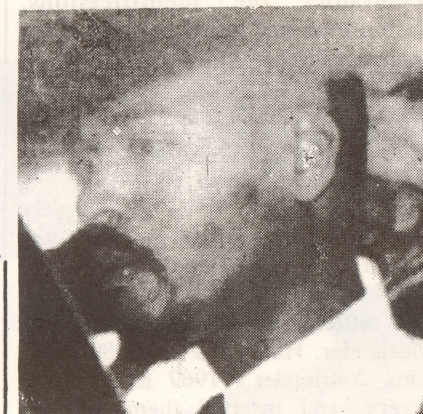

RODNEY KING, the American negro who claimed he was beaten up by policemen in Los Angeles, has admitted he lied when he claimed that the police called him a 'nigger'.

King initially told the court hearing that officers said "How do you feel, nigger?" as they clubbed him. But later, he retracted this, saying the officers 'may' have called him 'killer' rather than 'nigger'.

King also lied when asked if he used drugs, saying that he had never used them. He was later forced to admit that he lied, and was in fact a regular marijuana user.

Despite being found completely innocent in a 'civil rights' trial last year, the four policemen involved were forced to undergo an unprecedented second trial — purely to appease the massive 'ethnic' lobby in the United States. Black groups across America threatened reprisals in the form of further mass rioting if the cops were found not guilty again. As a result of this pressure, two of the men were subsequently found 'guilty' of beating up King.

'Civil rights hero' King has made over a million dollars from his media exposure, and now drives around in a chauffeured limousine, surrounded by black minders.

CRIMINAL CHARGES

But he is not quite the 'innocent victim' that the media would have us believe. During the alleged 'beating' incident, King was high on drugs and had been driving recklessly. He became violent when questioned by the police, who were then forced to subdue him with batons and an electric stun gun.

Since the incident last year, King has been arrested no less than three times on charges including drunken driving, a violent disturbance at his home, and being found with a male prostitute.

VICTIM Derek Cripps was blinded

Was this horrifying assault in fact a racial attack?

BOY'S FACE BURNED OFF BY BLACK MANIAC

SEVEN-YEAR-OLD Derek Cripps was recovering in hospital last month after a horrifying attack which could have had a racial motive.

While playing in a south London park with a friend he was attacked by a black man, who threw lighted petrol into his face for no apparent reason.

Doctors hope they will be able to save Derek's eyesight, but his face may be horribly scarred for life, and he is currently in severe pain.

In London, and other parts of Britain, racial attacks against whites are now so widespread that even our children are no longer safe to play.

JOBS for the (black) boys. Adverts like this are a constant reminder to the dispossessed white majority that we are now second class citizens in our own country, particularly where competition for jobs and housing are concerned. With millions of pounds being squandered on the race relations industry, it is no wonder that the Government has a huge public spending deficit which is bankrupting Britain.

THE 'OPPOSITION'

THE DEMOCRACY SWINDLE involves the use of a tame, official 'opposition' as a safety valve to con the public into thinking that there is an alternative to vote for if the current gang of crooks in government make too much of a mess. The present leader of the so-called 'opposition' is one John Smith, pictured above. His indecision is perfectly demonstrated by his inability to decide which nostril to poke his finger into next, though as he thankfully has only two from which to choose, the decision is relatively simple — he goes for both. If only his grasp of economics was as profound!

Roots book 'a pack of lies'

Left-wing slavery yarn exposed as evil hoax

BLACK ACTIVIST Alex Haley's book 'Roots' has been exposed as a 'pack of lies' by American journalist Philip Nobile.

The book, which Haley claimed to be the true story of his ancestors being brought to America as slaves, was turned into a television mini-series and made the author into a multi-millionaire.

'WHITE RACISM'

Until his death last year, Haley was paraded by liberals as a black 'civil rights' hero, and he built a lucrative career on the strength of his alleged 'exposure' of 'white racism' in America.

Thanks to painstaking research by Philip Nobile and other writers, Roots is now exposed as a sick hoax. There have been calls for Haley's Pulitzer Prize to be rescinded, as his 'academic' reputation now lies in tatters.

Nobile painstakingly retraced Haley's so-called 'research' to find that the author had invented a large amount of 'historical fact' and twisted the truth to suit his own political ends.

The slave ship which supposedly carried Haley's ancestor Kunte Kinte, arrived no less than five years after the date Haley claimed in his book.

SUBTERFUGE

Nobile commented: "We expected ineptitude but not subterfuge. The records show he got everything wrong" in his pre-Civil War lineage: 182 pages and 39 chapters on Haley's Virginia family have no basis in fact."

Family tree experts Gary and Elizabeth Mills found documents which "contradict the identifications, relationships and other specific facts that are crucial to the story."

LIES

The amazing fact is that it has taken so long to expose Haley's lies — especially as the truth was widely known among academics several years ago. In 1978, for example, Haley was forced to pay £450,000 in an out-of-court settlement to white author Harc Courlander. Haley had stolen 80 pages from Courlander's 1967 novel about slavery, and inserted them into his supposedly factual Roots.

But the prevailing atmosphere of 'political correctness' and white guilt, led to moral cowardice amongst the literary Establishment and helped protect him from exposure. Like Hans Anderson's story of the emperor's new clothes, no-one wanted to be the first to question the received wisdom of the Establishment.

William McGill, a member of the all-white panel who awarded Haley the Pulitzer prize, now admits that they were wrong to do so, but whines: "If we blew the Haley prize, as we apparently did, I feel bad. We all laboured under the delusion that sudden expressions of love could make up for historical mistakes, and of course, that's inverse racism."

Thankfully, the Los Angeles riots last year blew the lid off any remaining white guilt about 'racism'.

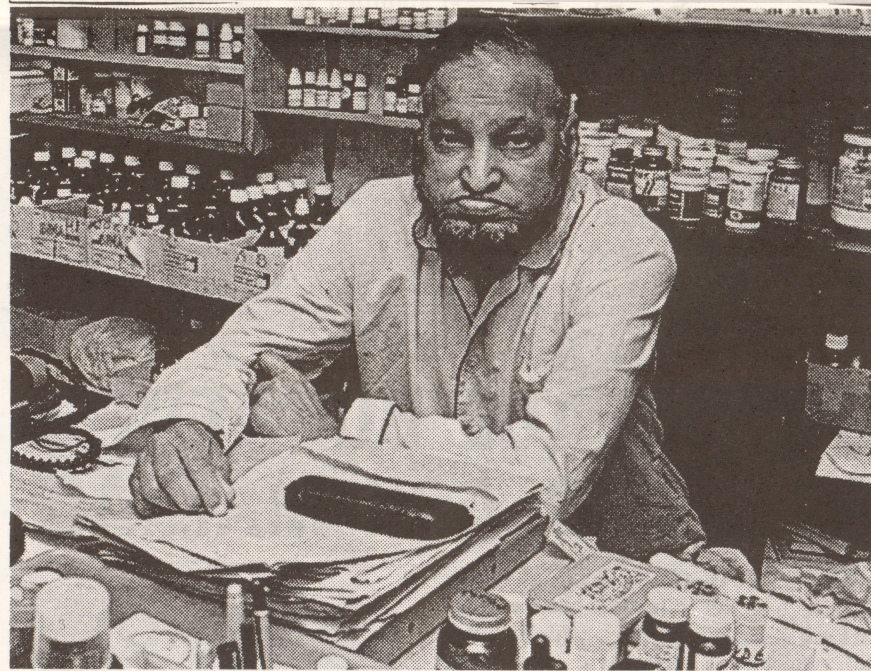

ALEX HALEY (above, with 'Roots' star Lynne Moody) made millions out of his 'biographical' yarn about slavery. The book and TV series (left) cleverly exploited white liberal guilt about 'racism' — but is now revealed as a cynical hoax, which the Establishment were too cowardly to expose

POLICE FURIOUS AS PASSPORT FRAUD DOCTOR GOES FREE

Pakistani doctor in bogus passport racket

PAKISTANI doctor Muhammad Faye Khan aided bogus passport racket

A PAKISTANI doctor at the centre of a bogus passport racket has walked free from court — to the fury of policemen.

Muhammad Faye Khan admitted illegally signing the passport applications of immigrants he did not even know. But, as angry Scotland Yard officers watched, he left Southwark Crown Court with only a 9-month suspended sentence.

WIDESPREAD ABUSE

A detective commented: "This is absolutely no deterrent at all. Abuse is widespread and increasing. This is a case where a genuine doctor has signed false passport applications for people who are illegal immigrants and whom he had never met."

Judge Mota Singh (!) said it was "not in the public interest" to jail Khan, who had charged one immigrant from India £2,500 for signing his application. Khan admitted he had signed over a hundred such applications for 'friends of friends'.

The case highlights the scandal of hundreds of thousands of bogus UK passports being issued each year.

WHITE FOLK HIT BY RACIAL ATTACKS

Alien gangs unleash race-war nightmare on British streets

THE ONSLAUGHT of vicious assaults against the white community continues unabated — and sadly, racial attacks against whites are now so frequent that it looks as if we will have to make a regular monthly feature of these distressing reports.

Bedford blitzed by alien thugs

AS WE REPORT on page eight, Bedford whites are increasingly turning to the British National Party for protection against a horrifying series of race-crimes directed against them. The reports below are just a sample of the evil catalogue of violence suffered by local folk.

ASIAN ASSAULTS ON TRAINS

A commuter at Bedford railway station was threatened by a gang of Asians and told: "Hand over your jewellery or lose your fingers."

British Transport Police are also investigating an incident in which a 17-year-old white youth from Boreham Wood was waiting for a train in the

Asian attacks now daily in Bethnal Green

ASSAULTS by Asian gangs have now risen to one a day in the Bethnal Green and Spitalfields area, according to local police.

A 26-year-old man attacked by one of the teenage mobs was fighting for his life in hospital last month. Michael Powell from Stoke Newington suffered severe head injuries and was taken unconscious to the Royal London Hospital, Whitechapel.

A recent police raid on an Asian youth club in Princelet street, Spitalfields, revealed a considerable number of offensive weapons such as iron bars and baseball bats hidden in the ceiling.

REVENGE ATTACK

A white man who was attacked by one of the gangs spoke to the local press about his ordeal, but asked them not to reveal his identity lest the gang stage a revenge attack.

The man was involved in a fight with an Asian youth, who ran away but returned with a mob of friends.

In a separate incident, two white youths were attacked by a 15-strong gang in Commercial Street. On New Year's Day a man was hit over the head with a milk crate during a vicious assault by six Asian youths in Brick Lane, Spitalfields.

Asian mob went 'white-bashing'

BIRMINGHAM Crown Court has heard how an armed Asian mob went on a "white bashing" rampage through the Small Heath area of the city.

Mr Peter Arnold, prosecuting, said that two brothers, Riaz Shah (19) and Imtiaz Shah (20), of Kenelm Road, Small Heath, had been spotted among a large gang of Asians who attacked two white youths with sticks, milk bottles and a hammer. Mr Arnold said Imtiaz Shah had been seen by witnesses wielding a milk bottle.

The gang told their victims that they were out "white bashing."

The two brothers pleaded guilty to a charge of public disorder.

Despite being found guilty, both men were granted a two year discharge.

ISRAEL BACK-PEDALS ON 'HOLOHOAX' TOLL

THE ISRAELI government has had to make a major climb-down on its 'Holohoax' claims.

The international council of Jewish groups who govern the 'Auschwitz Memorial Centre' have decided to lower the 'official' death-toll at the camp by THREE MILLION!

At one fell swoop, this brings the official Jewish death-toll in the second World War down to three million — only half the original six million figure previously claimed.

A plaque is to be unveiled at Auschwitz, a small German village currently occupied by Poland. The plaque will say that between one and 1.5 million Jews died there during the war — contradicting a previous claim of four million.

The plaque will also drop references to 'gas chambers' — formerly a key part of the Holohoax mythology.

EXPOSURE OF THE TRUTH

The Israelis have been forced to back-peddle on key parts of their Holohoax myth, following embarrassing exposures of the truth by numerous international historians, scientists and engineers, proving that most of the alleged 'atrocities' could not possibly have occurred.

In order to forestall further embarrassing discoveries, there could soon be more scaling-down of Israel's Holohoax. The story is in any case approaching the end of its usefulness. America and Germany have poured billions of dollars into Israel as 'reparations' for supposed killings of Jews, but recession-hit Germany is now scaling down its payments.

CRITICISM from the Establishment gutter press is the sincerest form of flattery as far as the British National Party is concerned — and the BNP in Milton Keynes has certainly attracted its fair share of media flak.

CAMPAIGN OF ABUSE

The hysterical campaign of abuse by the local press is in response to the phenomenal success of the Milton Keynes Unit's recruitment drive, during which they have already distributed over 20,000 'join us' leaflets, and held a number of paper sales and days of action in the town.

The Establishment media is of course at a loss to explain the success and popularity of the BNP. According to the MK Herald and Post, "the party contains a number of middle-class intellectuals" — which hardly fits with the media stereotype of BNP members 'fascist thugs'. The Herald and Post adds that "young adolescents — sometimes as young as 13 or 14 — are being recruited." Shock horror!

Why shouldn't we recruit young folk? The media never complain that

Nothing to do with us

THE Herald & Post wishes to make it clear that it had nothing whatsoever to do with the distribution of British National Party leaflets in the Crownhill area last week.

Several worried readers rang us to report that the leaflets and newspapers appeared to have arrived on their doormats at the same time — we believe the leaflets were delivered just before the newspapers and in some cases the newspapers pushed the leaflets through.

FOLLOWING the somewhat bizarre disclaimer above, the British National Party wishes to make it clear that it had nothing whatsoever to do with the distribution of the Milton Keynes Herald and Post. Several worried BNP supporters rang us to say that they were horrified by the perverted and repulsive political views peddled by the Herald and Post, which appeared to arrive on their doormats at the same time as BNP leaflets. The BNP can assure the public that we find the multi-racial propaganda of the Herald and Post abhorrent, and had no part in its distribution. We believe the newspapers were delivered just after the leaflets, and in some cases pushed the leaflets through.

We would urge members of the public receiving the Herald and Post to put it straight into the dustbin.

station foyer when he was approached by a gang of Asian men, who swore at him and threatened him with a knife. One of the Asians ordered him to hand over two gold sovereign rings or have his fingers "chopped off."

ASIAN AXEMAN HORROR

Rail travel in Bedford became even more unpleasant last month when an Asian axeman ran amok at Bedford railway station terrifying passengers and threatening taxi drivers.

The Asian man, with two accomplices, was seen chasing a white youth around the car park area with a short handled axe at around 4.30pm. The youth escaped by leaping onto a train, but the attackers then terrorised other members of the public. Horrified cab drivers were chased into their cars, and two of the thugs began urinating over taxis, some with passengers inside.

One driver told BN: "They were behaving like animals. The man with the axe was running about like a maniac, waving it at people and shouting abuse."

Eventually, a patrol car arrived, containing a lone policewoman, by which time the gang had already fled.

Police believe the gang may be re-

THANKS to the histrionics of rent-a-mouth immigrant leader Lubna Haq, the Milton Keynes BNP achieved massive publicity in the local press. This (highly biased) report appeared in the Milton Keynes Herald and Post, as usual labelling the BNP as a 'fascist group'. The report includes the phone number of an anti-British hate group, presumably with the intention of organising physical assaults against BNP activists.

our kids are being indoctrinated by left-wing and communist schoolteachers day after day.

The MK Gazette admits: "The 'Put Britain First' anti-Europe and anti-mass immigration theme is convincing at first glance to the uninitiated. And what is worse, it is getting results."

There could hardly be a better compliment than that!

The spokesperson for the local 'Racial Equality Council', one Miss Lubna Haq, says: "What's worrying is the amount of members they must have — certainly enough to leaflet virtually every house in Milton Keynes."

COMPLIMENT

Again, we regard this as a back-handed compliment as the REC is effectively admitting that it can do nothing to stop the BNP juggernaut rolling forward.

The 'Join Us' campaign is of course not confined solely to Milton Keynes — it is a nationwide scheme which has already brought in a flood of new members to the Party. But the Milton Keynes Unit deserves special praise for its efforts, which have resulted in a considerable number of new members, and front-page headlines in the local press.

Milton Keynes is an excellent example of how mass leafletting can generate opposition from local lefties, which in turn leads to massive media coverage for the BNP. Despite the hostile tone of the press coverage, the fact is that they cannot ignore us.

sponsible for an earlier street mugging, in which a 19-year-old man was beaten up and robbed in an alleyway off Ashburnham Road, Bedford.

In a separate incident, a teenager was threatened at knifepoint as he walked with his girlfriend in Bedford's Silver Jubilee Park.

The white couple were threatened by two Asian men, who then made off with the 18-year-old's mountain bike, worth £330.

O.A.P. MUGGED BY ASIANS

A Bedford pensioner was beaten up and robbed by a gang of Asians — for just 10 pence.

The 73-year-old man was walking along Ashburnham Road when he was approached by three Asians, who demanded 10p. Despite handing over the cash, the pensioner was savagely beaten about the head and body before the Asians fled.

Local police commented: "This is a particularly callous attack on a defenceless old man going about his business. Despite his age and the fact that he handed over the money he was still beaten up."

Following the vicious attack, a local BNP spokesman said: "The amount

Fury as fascist group hits city

By JON LOCKETT

LEAFLETS distributed to homes in Milton Keynes have sparked fury among anti-fascist campaigners in the borough.

Following on from their massive campaign in January to recruit more members in London, the British National Party has spread its wings to the city.

Members have pledged to leaflet every home in the borough appealing for householders to join their cause.

Campaign

In a letter to the Herald & Post they write: "With the increased support for our policies and the wide-scale public opposition to the building the Sikh temple in Milton Keynes, the BNP is pleased to announce a mass recruitment campaign in the area."

"Each household will receive one of our new 'Join Us' leaflets."

But the Racial Equality Council (REC) in Milton Keynes says anybody who receives the leaflet should give them a call.

Spokesman for the REC Lubna Haq said: "They are not leafletting every house in Milton Keynes — they are targeting the Lakes Estate, Blechley and Wolverton."

"I have already received complaints from some people who have had this leaflet put through their door."

Targeting

She added that the problem is BNP is against anybody who is not white yet with mass leafletting they push the leaflets through everybody's doors including the homes of Asian and black families.

Lubna said the BNP were targeting the young in the hope of getting more support.

She said: "They feed off young people, but in Milton Keynes we will tackle them head-on. If they hold a demonstration so will we."

"The BNP is a fascist organisation, if anybody gets one of these leaflets through their door they should give us a call on 0908 606828."

Leaflets handed out in massive recruitment drive

RACE MOB ON MARCH

By SALLY MURRER

The MK Gazette (above) carried a hysterical report about the 'fascist' (sic) BNP, but had to admit that the Party's high profile 'Join Us' campaign (left & below) "is getting results."

The BNP has indeed received a flood of membership enquiries as a result of the leaflet drive.

MILTON Keynes is in the grips of a sickening bout of racism — and the culprits are the British National Party, it is claimed.

The fascist BNP has, over the past couple of weeks, leafleted thousands of houses all over the city in a massive recruitment drive. They have even handed out leaflets outside the school gates to pupils at Stantonbury.

The "Put Britain First" anti-Europe and anti-mass immigration theme is, as even racial equality campaigners admit, convincing at first glance to the uninitiated. And what is worse, it is actually getting results.

"Since this leafletting campaign there is no doubt that racism has increased significantly. We've had more calls and complaints than we ever remember before," said a spokesman for the city's Racial Equality Council.

"We've had families suburbanised to terrible distress."

Scottish 'Join Us' boost

Sunday 21st March saw another highly successful Day of Action as part of the 'Join Us' campaign in the Scottish region. Activists from Edinburgh and Glasgow teamed up with members of the newly-formed West Lothian unit to leaflet their home town of Livingston.

The Dean's Housing Estate was chosen as the target area for the day and the team set about their task with great enthusiasm. At the end of the leaflet drive around 2,000 'Join Us' leaflets had been delivered, resulting in an impressive influx of new enquiries in a previously untouched area.

The day's events were rounded off with the customary well-earned pint, with everyone agreeing that another good day's action had been completed by the BNP in Scotland.

Plans are now afoot to move into the rest of West Lothian, to continue the good work started in Livingston for the 'Join Us' campaign.

Scotland is once again proving that the BNP is now an unstoppable political force — north of the border as well as to the south. Recent Activities in the region have not only won a welcome number of new recruits, but also a huge amount of media publicity.

JOIN THE WELLING CLUB

THE WELLING CLUB is a circle of British National Party supporters who are able and willing to contribute £20 a month to the BNP.

Now that the Party is entering the 'big league' of British politics there is clearly a need for a regular source of income with which to finance necessary expansion.

Money for new equipment, administrative staff, transport and election expenses inevitably becomes more and more necessary as the BNP expands.

A number of members and supporters have already joined the Welling Club, and the additional source of income has proved most useful.

In return for their monthly £20 contributions, members of the Club will receive regular special news bulletins, and will be invited free of charge to an annual dinner, which will be addressed by the Party Chairman.

Those who wish to join the Welling Club should write to: The Welling Club, PO Box 117, Welling, Kent DA16 3DW, enclosing their first contribution of £20. Contributions can if desired also be made by bankers order, details of which will be provided on receipt of initial payments.

RACE AND REASON (by Carleton Putnam). A plain, unemotional account of the race issue that has been an invaluable contribution to the debate ever since it was first published in 1961. £4.00 plus 50p p&p.

THE DISPOSSESSED MAJORITY (by Wilmot Robertson). This book has attracted worldwide attention, dealing as it does with racial problems in America — and not just the black-white situation. The author is also editor of Instaurator magazine. £7.50 plus 93p p&p.

NEW BOOKLET

NO TO MAASTRICHT! NO TO EUROPE! New policy booklet produced jointly by British National Party Devon Branch and the party's National Headquarters. This booklet explains the BNP's opposition not only to the Maastricht Treaty but to British membership of the European Community. The booklet answers the standard arguments put forward by the pro-EC lobby in British politics, and it does what many opponents of the Community fail to do: it proposes a viable alternative to British membership in the form of a renewed trading alliance of White Commonwealth states. The booklet is written in plain, down-to-earth language and is easy to read. It is attractively illustrated on the front and back. Price: 40p plus 18p p&p.

Day of Action to remember as BNP storms Blackburn terrorist meeting

SATURDAY the 20th of March began as a straightforward BNP Day of Action in Blackburn, with the specific purpose of challenging the IRA and its recent loathsome activities in the North West.

Around 70 activists had converged on the town centre to distribute BNP leaflets and sell copies of British Nationalist, when news came in of the IRA bomb outrage in Warrington, in which a three-year-old boy died and scores of others were injured.

On the same day, Euro-MP room, they were physically attacked by some of Hindley's thugs, and therefore had no choice but to defend themselves vigorously.

The meeting dissolved into pandemonium. As furniture flew around the room, Rossendale's Trotskyist MP Janet Anderson dived for cover under a chair (she needn't have bothered, as the BNP do not fight women, even those with such unpleasant views as Mrs Anderson).

When Michael Hindley was confronted by a couple of stalwart patriots, his normal arrogance and bluster evaporated as he pathetically pleaded for mercy. BNP witnesses believe Hindley's bowels must have given way under the strain, judging from the unpleasant stench which emanated from his trousers!

HOSPITALISED

ANC scum Howard Smith was hospitalised after his head made contact with a chair moving at high speed.

Finally, the red reactionaries were photographed for the BNP's security files. This tactic clearly upset them — despite the fact that they themselves frequently use it against the BNP.

After making short work of the red gangsters, the BNP team moved on to the next part of their activity, a paper sale and leaflet distribution outside Blackburn Rovers ground at Ewood Park. Although the event was peaceable, left-wing senior police officers decided to break it up.

HENDERSON ARRESTED

On the orders of a senior police officer, North West Organiser Ken Henderson was (illegally) arrested, ostensibly for 'behaviour likely to cause a breach of the peace', but in reality because local marxist councillors had complained about the BNP's distribution of anti-IRA leaflets.

Needless to say, Ken was released without charge, as neither he nor his BNP team had committed any breach of the law.

The local Establishment press of course took the side of the IRA/ANC supporters, describing the BNP as 'thugs'.

The truth is, that these fine patriots set an excellent example in their stalwart resistance to terrorism and its political apologists.

ELECTION FEVER BOOSTS MIDLANDS MEETINGS

RICHARD EDMONDS was the guest speaker at a pre-election meeting in Leicester held on 29th March (RIGHT). The Leicester unit is fielding two candidates in this month's County Council elections, and so the meeting was an important morale-booster and fund-raising event to launch the campaign. The meeting was also addressed by Midlands organiser John Peacock, and chaired by Geoff Dickens.

A similar meeting was held in Stoke-on-Trent on the 7th April, in support of British National Party election candidate Steve Batkin (BELOW).

The Stoke Unit was formed two years ago, and has since achieved spectacular membership growth and considerable local publicity. Recently, the Unit has been campaigning in the Fenton ward of the City, where immigrants have set up a bizarre religious cult known as the 'Pandarian Faith Centre'.

BNP activists in Stoke are leading the campaign by local whites to have the Centre closed down, as the constant noise, smell, and flashing lights at all hours of the day and night are making life hell for British folk in the area.

In an excellent maiden speech, Steve Batkin called on voters to support the BNP in its opposition to the alien religious centre.

The meeting was also addressed by Midlands organiser John Peacock whose message to our candidate was: "Be positive. Don't say we can't win. We can win and we'll keep trying again and again until we do win."

SKINHEAD TERROR

Violence flares as 30 thugs storm meeting

By NEIL BRANWELL

RACIST thugs stormed a black rights meeting and left one man needing hospital treatment for a head wound in a planned orgy of hate.

Up to 30 skinheads burst into an anti-apartheid meeting at Blackburn Library, chanting British National Party slogans. Then the thugs:

● Hurling chairs into the audience in the Abram Room, hitting two people.
● Screaming abuse at East Lancs Euro-MP Michael Hindley.
● Forcing Darren and Rossendale MP Janet Anderson to shield herself by holding a chair over her head.
● Kicked Mrs South African anti-apartheid activist Mrs. Anderson.
● Took photos of all those present at the meeting.
● Threw BNP leaflets around the room.
● Stoke Mrs. Anderson's telephone before running off through the town centre.
● Punched and kicked a man wearing an anti-Nazi league badge who was shopping with his girlfriend in the town centre.

● Turn to page 2

Telegraph OPINION

Are the police doing enough to stop thugs?

IS LAWLESSNESS getting the upper hand? One would be forgiven for thinking this is so — in some parts of East Lancashire at least — given the reign of thuggery revealed in our pages tonight.

The implication is that the police are not doing enough.

And that does seem so from the disgraceful events in Blackburn at the weekend. Upwards of 20 Nazi-style skinheads, chanting British National Party slogans, burst into a perfectly legitimate anti-apartheid meeting in the Central Library.

They hurled chairs about, screamed abuse, injured one man badly enough for him to need hospital treatment and terrified others during a five-minute invasion.

Abuse. Next, they went on to beat up a man shopping with his girlfriend and abuse Asian shoppers elsewhere in the town centre. And, at the end of all that, they go down to Ewood Park to hand out BNP leaflets to football fans under the noses of the police.

Is any link made between their presence and the incident at the library? Apparently not.

Just one of the leaflet distributors is arrested — after fans complain to the police about his activity.

Later, he was released without charge. And today police are asking the public to help identify these thugs.

Are these British National Party thugs getting away with it?

Are the police not doing enough? This was, we think, one occasion when these charges — generalised as they are — seem fairly levelled.

The tactic, we think, should be a high-profile one of doing more. A permanent police presence on the streets. Maybe even a permanently-manned police station on Johnston Street.

Then, the suspicion that the police are not doing enough will reduce.

And so, too, will the deleterious 'getting away with it' mood that the criminals exploit.

of the IRA, was to speak at a 'black power' meeting held in Blackburn Library. Also present was Howard Smith, a member of the South African ANC terrorist group.

Within half an hour of the news from Warrington, Hindley did not have a platform to stand on, as incensed North West patriots removed it from under him!

VIOLENCE

The BNP of course had no intention of causing violence, but went to the (public) meeting in order to protest verbally about Hindley and Smith's support for terrorism.

But when they heard the gang of evil perverts gloating over the Warrington bomb attack, the BNP's 'usual restraint was understandably stretched to breaking point.

THE BNP made front page news after breaking up an IRA/ANC meeting in Blackburn. The hysterical report by the Lancashire Evening Telegraph speaks of a "planned orgy of hate" — yet the BNP's protest was in fact peaceful until the reds became violent.

What we stand for

- The establishment of a government of national unity that will put an end to nationally divisive party warfare; the return of leadership and statesmanship to British affairs.
- An end to immigration and a start to repatriation.
- British withdrawal from the Common Market
- The disbanding of the multi-racial Commonwealth and its replacement by a new Commonwealth of self-governing white states.
- British ownership and control of British industry and resources.
- Protection of British industry by the selective exclusion of foreign manufactured goods from the British market.
- An end to the financial swindle that causes inflation and slump, and its replacement by a sane and fair financial system that will give the people the purchasing power to buy the goods they produce.
- The subordination of the power of the City to the power of government, and the harnessing of the City to the needs of British industry.
- The regeneration of British farming, with the object of achieving the maximum possible self-sufficiency in food production.
- Rejection of both the poll tax and its substitute, the new 'property tax', and a return to the old rates system, though with fairer rebates allowing for differences in income and in the numbers occupying properties.
- A healthy environment for a healthy people — the protection of our countryside and an end to the architectural disfigurement of our towns and cities.
- Tougher treatment of criminals, including the return of the death penalty.
- A return to traditional methods of education, with stronger discipline in the classroom and the sacking of 'trendy' teachers.
- An alternative defence strategy: withdrawal from NATO, closure of all foreign military and air bases in Britain, the strengthening of Britain's defences and a position of armed neutrality.
- An end to overseas aid and the allocation of the money saved to the financing of repatriation and greater help for the needy at home.
- The crushing of the IRA, the termination of the Anglo-Irish Agreement and firm support for the loyalist majority in Northern Ireland.
- Repeal of the laws permitting homosexuality and abortion (except where the latter is the result of rape or necessary on medical grounds), the wiping out of AIDS and a return to healthy moral values aimed at strengthening the family and community.
